

EST. 1998

PRAIRIE TRADING COMPANY

CONSIGNMENT BOUTIQUE

Consignor Name _____ Phone # _____

Consignor Address _____ Zip _____

Email _____ Date _____

Prairie Trading Company will set the price for each item and may make periodic reductions or adjustments at anytime during the consignment period.

The consignor will receive 40% of the actual selling price once sold. Single items selling for $100 or more will be paid at a rate of 50%.

Checks will be available on the 1st weekday of each month. It is the consignor's responsibility to check on the status of your account and to pick up checks during normal store hours. Checks will be held for a period of 3 months after issue date. All checks become null and void 3 months after issue date and will not be reissued.

New consignors will pay the $5 starting fee from a deduction in their account. The consignment period is 90 days. Any items not picked up within 7 days of the consignment expiration date will become the property of Prairie Trading Company and may be donated to charity or sold. To pick up any unsold expired items you may ask Prairie Trading Company to pull them for you for a charge of $5. Or you can find them yourself and check them out at the front desk for no charge. It is the consignor's responsibility to initiate pick up of unsold items.

Items found to be damaged, stained, missing buttons, torn etc will be removed from the sales floor and donated to charity or have the selling price marked down accordingly.

Items accepted for consignment which require steaming, stain removal, polishing etc will reflect a minimum of $1.00 per item charge to your consignor account.

Please be aware that your items are in a retail environment. Prairie Trading Company is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged merchandise. All merchandise is placed in our store at the consignors own risk.

I have read and agree to the terms of this contract:

Signed _____ Date _____